

CONDUCT COVENANT

Just a word to you about 'groups'.

Anytime you do something as a "group" you cannot cater to everyone's personal preferences. Every individual cannot have their own way! That means that everyone going will have to give up some of their "rights" in order to do what is best for our group. There will be a tight handle on things.

A Contract on Personal Conduct

1. Go to give compliments and encouraging words to other people. No complaining about anything – Numbers 11:1
2. Go to serve God by cleaning up the campsite. Clean up after yourself. You are also required to participate in the clean up of the entire camp.
3. You get to be under the authority of Jesus Christ, His word and your extended family leader and thus experience security and protection and safety – Hebrew 13:17 you are required to be obedient without question to your adult leaders.
4. Go to experience accountability with other Christians. You are required to use the buddy system. Never go off by yourself! Always have at least FOUR other people with you, and inform a leader of where you are going.
5. Go to experience community with one another. There will be no leaving the assigned or expected areas at any time.
6. Go to experience God's creation. If it rains, we all get wet. Praise God!
7. Go to fall in love with Jesus Christ. Absolutely no P.D.A. (Public Displays of Affection) in any form. Put your hormones on hold for this time. Stay out of the tent areas of the opposite sex at all times. Take cold showers.
8. Go to be a blessing to all. Disrespect in attitude or action will not be tolerated toward anybody. You will be sent home. There is a no put-down rule.

I understand how to get the most out of Mexico 2012 and that failure to do my part in the above could get me sent home at my own expense.
